Event Report

BUDA (Buried Utility Damage Avoidance) and iMusicTech Limited Spring Dinner 2010 was successfully held on 5th February in Royal Wedding in Tsim Sha Tsui. It was the first time for BUDA Group cooperating with iMusicTech Limited to hold the spring dinner together. It was a great opportunity to gather all the company partners, management teams, friends and staffs all together.

The Dinner was divided into 5 parts. Firstly, Managing Director of BUDA Group Mr. Zico Kwok had made an opening speech for the past review and future plan of BUDA Group. Then he invited Mr. Kenneth Chau, the Managing Director of iMusicTech Limited, for toasting section and they announced the spring dinner 2010 started. A photo slide show was shown to guests, which presented the memories from last year and also the hope for the next year.

Secondly, we had a short game called “True or Not”. The atmosphere of the dinner was enhanced when came to the lucky draw section. Ir. Edmund Leung and Ir. Paul Tsui were the guests for “Lucky draw” section. Besides, the “Best Dressing Lady and Gentlemen” were chosen by Mrs. Peggy Chau for rewarding the creativity of red dressing code for the dinner. Moreover, the “Best Staff Award” was presented by Mr. Zico Kwok to reward the staff who had contribution and good performance to the company in the last year.

After the prize present section, two of the iMusic stars performed their winning songs from last Music Competition held by iMusicTech Limited in January 2010. After that, Ir. Damien Ku and Ir. Spencer Li were the guests for second round “Lucky draw”.

It is no doubt that people felt excited during the “Beer Drinking Competition”. The last but not less, Ms. Rowena Li got the largest prize – Xbox360 from Mr. Zico Kwok in the third lucky draw section which is held after the “Beer Drinking Competition”.

Finally, Mr. Kenneth Chau presented an ending speech to all guests and people had enjoyed the dinner. In summary, BUDA Group and iMusicTech Limited Spring Dinner 2010 was very successful that all of the staffs enjoyed a wonderful night.
